

Traci L. Mayo

mayotraci@gmail.com
mayot@whitehouseisd.org
traci.mayo@tjc.edu

1234 Colt Lane
Tyler, Texas 75703
Cell: 903/926-1435

Education

University of Texas at Austin: August 1997 – May 2004
Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics with secondary teaching certification
Texas Tech University: August 2016 – May 2018
Master of Arts in Mathematics

Teaching Experience

Tyler Junior College:

Fall 2019 – Present
Taught PreCalculus (MATH 2412)

Whitehouse High School:

Fall 2005 – Present
Taught Algebra 1, pre-AP Geometry, Algebra 2, pre-AP/Honors Algebra 2, Bridges to Algebra 2, PreCalculus, pre-AP/Honors PreCalculus, Dual Credit PreCalculus, Foundations of College Math,

From 2015 – Present

I have served as the Response to Intervention teacher. I have also served as a WHS representative on the District Education Improvement Committee and as a math department representative on the WHS Site Based Decision Making Committee.

From 2017 - 2019

I served as the chair of the math department.

Taylor High School:

Fall 2004 – Spring 2005
Taught Algebra 1 and Algebra 2

Student Teaching Experience

Bowie High School:

Spring of 2004: Taught two 50-minute Honors Geometry classes for one full semester.

Bowie High School:

Fall of 2003: Taught two 50-minute Honors Geometry classes twice throughout the semester.

Porter Middle School:

Fall of 2002: Co-taught two 50-minute 6th grade regular Algebra classes
Taught one 50-minute 6th grade regular Algebra class.

Travis High School:

November 2002: Team-taught three 50-minute lessons on 3 consecutive days in a 12th grade science classroom and for one day in a math classroom.

Travis High School:

September 2002: Team taught one 50-minute lesson in a 9th grade math classroom.

Blanton Elementary School:

Spring of 2002: Co-taught four 50-minute 3rd grade science classes throughout the semester

References

Available upon request